Music

Brackley & District Band

Welcome

Town Mayor, Councillor Elaine Wiltshire

Hymn: Eternal Father, Strong to Save

Eternal Father, strong to save,
whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep
its own appointed limits keep:
O, hear us when we cry to Thee,
for those in peril on the sea!

O Christ, whose voice the waters heard and hushed their raging at thy word,
who walkedst on the foaming deep,
and calm amidst its rage didst sleep:
O, hear us when we cry to Thee,
for those in peril on the sea!

O Holy Spirit! Who didst brood
upon the waters dark and rude,
and bid their angry tumult cease,
and give, for wild confusion, peace:
O, hear us when we cry to Thee,
for those in peril on the sea!

O Trinity of love and power,
our brethren shield in danger's hour;
from rock and tempest, fire and foe,
protect us wheresoe'er they go:
thus evermore shall rise to Thee
glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

Bible Reading: John 15. 12-13

Rev. Rich Duncan, St Peter's Church, Vicar and Mayor's Chaplain

My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends.

The Laying of the Wreaths

During the laying of the wreaths Brackley Band will play

Hymn: I Vow to Thee, My Country

I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above
Entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love;
The love that asks no questions, the love that stands the test,
That lays upon the altar the dearest and the best;
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price,
The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice

And there's another country I've heard of long ago,
Most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know;
We may not count her armies, we may not see her King;
Her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering;
And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase,
And her ways are ways of gentleness, and all her paths are peace.

The Lord's Prayer

Read by Rev. Sara Cliff, Padre, Brackley Methodist Minister

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come; thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

Call to Remembrance

The Exhortation

Read by Caryl Billingham, MBE, Royal British Legion President Brackley Branch

"They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun, and in the morning,
We will remember them."

Congregation: We will remember them

The Last Post

The Silence

Reveille

National Anthem - The United Kingdom

God save our gracious King, Long live our noble King,
God save the King:
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us:
God save the King

National Anthem - United States of America

Oh, say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

The Kohima Epitaph

Read by Ian Noakes, Chairman

Royal British Legion, Brackley Branch

'When you go home, tell them of us and say,
for your tomorrow, we gave our today.'

Closing Prayer & Blessing

Rev. Rich Duncan, St Peter's Church, Vicar and Mayor's Chaplain

Sunset

Please remain standing for this final piece of music.

After this music, the Mace Bearer will lead the Dignitaries into the Town Hall. Once inside the Parade Commander will then dismiss the Parade.
